EPA Envirofacts (<https://enviro.epa.gov/>)

The complete 2021 Toxics Release Inventory dataset is now available. This dataset will be the basis for the 2021 TRI National Analysis, planned for publication in early 2023.

The Envirofacts database is now RESTful service-enabled. See the services tab below for documentation and examples, or visit: Envirofacts Web Services

The screenshot shows the EPA Envirofacts website. At the top, there are three navigation links: "Data Update", "Envirofacts Model", and "Contact Us". Below these are several icons representing different environmental data sources. The main heading "Envirofacts" is prominently displayed with the tagline "Your one-stop source for Environmental Information".

TCEQ Webpages to Use

TCEQ makes a lot of information available to the public. You just have to know where to look.

The following slides will identify the most useful links and a few tips to get to the information you need.

Central Registry (CR) Query

<https://www15.tceq.texas.gov/crpub/>

This is the primary landing site that contains a few tools that TCEQ has for locating facility and permit information.

The option you select typically depends on the amount of information you already have.

Regulated Entity Search

<https://www15.tceq.texas.gov/crpub/index.cfm?fuseaction=regent.RNSearch>

The “Regulated Entity Search” is most useful when you have very little information.

Here you can search by just city or street name.

You can refine your search by the permit type under “Program” or by simply entering as much information as you have.

Central Registry Query - Regulated Entity Search

Search for a person, organization, place, or thing that is of environmental interest to the TCEQ, where regulatory activities or interest to us occur or have occurred in the past.

Regulated Entity Search

Option 1: Enter a Regulated Entity Reference Number (RN):

RN Number ⓘ :  (9 digits or RN + 9 digits)

Option 2: Complete one or more of these fields:

Regulated Entity:  (Name or part of name 2-40 characters.)

→ Program:  (AIR OPERATING PERMITS) ▼

Program ID:  (Permit, registration, or other program identifier.)

ID Status:  ▼ (ID status, only used if program or ID entered.)

Street Address ⓘ :  (3-35 characters.)

→ City:  (Enter complete or partial city name, 3-30 characters.)

ZIP Code:  (Must be numeric and 5 digits.)

→ County:  (ELLIS) ▼

Regulated Entity Search

<https://www15.tceq.texas.gov/crpub/index.cfm?fuseaction=regent.RNSearch>

Select the Regulated Entity Number (RN) to get more information on the facility that you are interested in.

Save the RN # as it will be associated with all permits at any given source.

Central Registry Query - Regulated Entity Search Results List

The regulated entity name search looks for current and prior customer names. Therefore, the result list could return a name that doesn't exactly match the search criteria.

Your Search Returned 8 Records. Click on a column name to change the sort or a RN to view the regulated entity information.

READY TO REVIEW PERMITS?

Now we will get into how to find permits and public notices

Title V Permits - Background

- Public and EPA review of title V permits is concurrent. Typically, the public comment period begins a week before the EPA comment period.
- The Public comment period is 30 day. The EPA review period is 45 days.
- If a title V permit receives public comments, then EPA review is suspended and the process converts to a sequential review.
- EPA review will then begin once TCEQ submits a Response to Comments and proposed title V permit to EPA. EPA will have 45 days to review.
- EPA has the authority to object to any proposed permit. If EPA does not object, then the public has 60 days to petition the EPA to object.

Title V Permits at Notice

EPA Maintains a webpage that shows our review deadline and the deadline to submit a petition.

<https://www.epa.gov/caa-permitting/operating-permit-timeline-texas>

TCEQ has two separate websites for title V permit notices:

- Minor Revisions –

https://www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/permitting/air/Title\_V/announcements/table.htm

- Renewals and Significant Revisions –

https://www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/permitting/air/Title\_V/announcements/pnwebbrpt.htm

New Source Review Permits

There are many types of NSR permits

- Permits by Rule (PBR)
- Standard Permits
- Flexible Permits
- Plant Wide Applicability Permits
- Minor NSR Permits
- Non-attainment NSR (NNSR) Permits
- Prevention of Significant Deterioration (PSD) Permits

Not all permits are renewed. PSD and PBRs are never renewed.

TCEQ RECORDS ONLINE

The screenshot displays the TCEQ Records Online search interface. At the top left is the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality logo. The header text reads "Welcome to the TCEQ Records Online". A green banner below the header states: "This application will allow you to search and view publicly available electronic records and information on many of the facilities regulated by the agency."

The main search area contains three sections:

- Basic Search: A blue header bar says "Select one or more search criteria below, and click on Search to view results." Below this are three dropdown menus labeled "Record Series", "Document Type", and "Media", each with a "---- Select ----" option. To the right are "Search" and "Reset" buttons.
- Refined Search: A blue header bar says "Select one or more search criteria below and enter full text to refine search, and click on Search to view results." Below this are four dropdown menus on the left and four text input fields on the right. At the bottom right of this section are radio buttons for "AND" (selected) and "OR", and "Search" and "Reset" buttons.
- Quick Search: A blue header bar says "Quick Search, enter full text to refine search, and click on Search to view results." Below this is a single large text input field and "Search" and "Reset" buttons.

Searching for files

TCEQ also has instructions

<https://www.tceq.texas.gov/downloads/agency/data/records-services/how-to-search-tceq-records-online.pdf>

Selecting the Record series at top is not necessary. If it is left blank, you will get permitting and enforcement related files.

Primary ID is the permit number. This number alone will often give you a lot of unrelated results.

Add in the Central Registry RN number to get only files for the site you are looking for. The RN stays with a site and typically never changes.

Select one or more search criteria below, and click on Search to view results.

GETTING ON A MAILING LIST

If you submit a comment, request a public meeting, or request a contested case hearing regarding a specific permit application, the TCEQ will automatically add you to the mailing list for that application.

You may also request to be on either of these two kinds of mailing lists:

- The permanent mailing list for a specific applicant name and permit number.
- The permanent mailing list for a specific county (which includes all air, water, and waste notices in that county).

GETTING ON A MAILING LIST

To get on either of these additional mailing lists, you must send a request to the chief clerk. In your request, specify the mailing list or lists you want to be on, and include your name and address.

The request must be made in writing and can be done by mail or email. You will get a confirmation email when requesting by email.
